

DOONERAK HOUSE | GLENFINNAN | PH37 4LT

PRICE GUIDE: £350,000

Occupying a superb position and commanding breath-taking mountain and countryside views with an iconic West Highland railway backdrop, Doonerak House is an attractive detached residence set within generous private garden grounds, offering ample off-road parking and an enviable setting in the heart of the Highlands. Peacefully nestled amidst spectacular scenery in the picturesque and historic village of Glenfinnan, this charming property enjoys an idyllic setting while providing spacious and versatile accommodation, thoughtfully arranged over two levels. Benefiting from double glazing and electric heating throughout, the house is presented in very good order, making it ready for immediate occupation. The welcoming accommodation comprises an impressive triple-aspect entrance porch/sun room, perfectly positioned to capture the surrounding landscape and natural light, together with a spacious lounge featuring an open fire, creating a warm and inviting focal point, and impressive picture window to enjoy the magnificent views. Further ground floor accommodation includes a formal dining room adjoining the well-appointed kitchen, a versatile utility room, two bedrooms and family bathroom. The upper floor offers two further large and well-proportioned bedrooms and an additional shower room, providing excellent flexibility for family living or guest accommodation. Owing to its generous proportions, outstanding location and versatility, Doonerak House would be ideally suited as a superb family residence with good internet connectivity, an idyllic Highland holiday retreat, or an attractive investment opportunity within the thriving and highly sought-after self-catering holiday rental market.

The historic Highland village of Glenfinnan lies approximately 16 miles west of Fort William, beautifully positioned at the head of Loch Shiel and surrounded by some of Scotland's most dramatic landscapes. Steeped in history, Glenfinnan is famed as the site where Jacobite Rising of 1745 began when Bonnie Prince Charlie raised his Standard in 1745. More recently, the village has gained worldwide recognition for the iconic Glenfinnan Viaduct, celebrated for its appearance in the Harry Potter films. Despite its tranquil setting, the village offers a range of local amenities including a church, hotel, restaurant facilities, railway station and the renowned Glenfinnan Monument visitor centre. The surrounding area is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts, with exceptional opportunities for walking, hiking, climbing, fishing, mountain biking, sailing, wildlife watching and photography, and exploring the magnificent temperate West Highland countryside.
